7. Problems in disposing the pending issues: 1. These Audit objections are long outstanding. Preparation and arrangement of supporting documents, explanation/interpretation of rules and acceptance of these by the audit department is time consuming and complicated too. However, audit department has been asked to expedite the settlement of the issue.

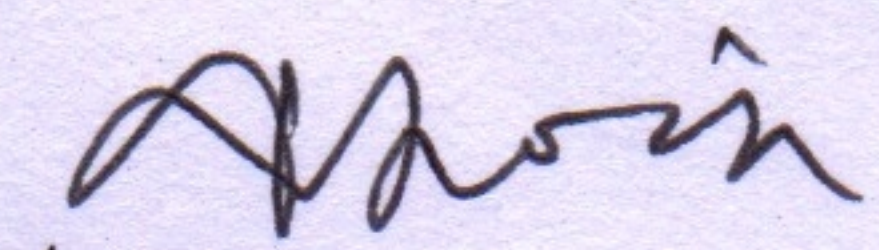

2. Settlement of cases in civil court require long time because of the long list of pending cases.

8. Steps taken to dispose the pending issues: Member (Finance & Trade) and Deputy Director (Finance) of Bangladesh Tea Board are meeting with audit authority regularly to expedite the settlement of audit objections.

2. Lawyer has been engaged to plead and look after the cases pending with different courts of justice.

9. General Remarks

: Necessary steps have been taken to settle the pending issues.
